Where have we seen this number before?

The original skull and bones can be found in St. Peter's Basilica in Rome, a church built by the mother of Emperor Constantine, founder of Roman Christianity.

To quote from Wikipedia:

“The number “322” appears in Skull and Bones’ insignia and is widely reported to be significant as the year of Greek orator Demosthenes’ death.<sup>[19][26][5]</sup> A letter between early society members in Yale’s archives<sup>[27]</sup> suggests that 322 is a reference to the year 322 BC and that members measure dates from this year instead of from the common

era. In 322 BC, the Lamian War ended with the death of Demosthenes and Athenians were made to dissolve their government and establish a plutocratic system in its stead, whereby only those possessing 2,000 drachmas or more could remain citizens.” https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Skull\_and\_Bones

The fact that this number celebrates the triumph of plutocracy over democracy may give us a clue about who we are dealing with in this COVID situation.
